Dear Mr. Baird:

The postgraduate course of instruction at the U.S. Naval Intelligence School has started its nine month curriculum. The lecture on Sketching is scheduled for Friday, 28 September 1962 from 1030 - 1500; that on the [redacted] for Thursday, 11 October 1962 from 1030 - 1230; and the Inter-Agency Source Registry Lecture is scheduled for Tuesday, 23 October 1962 from 1430 - 1530.

The curriculum of the U.S. Naval Intelligence School has been adapted as the basis for instruction in the Defense Intelligence School. This year's class is tri-service in composition, consisting of ten Army, and ten Air Force Officers in addition to the forty-three Navy and two Marine Corps Officers in attendance. All hold Top Secret Security Clearances.

If this request can be granted, it is suggested that LCDR J.M. MCNABB, USA of the postgraduate faculty be contacted to make the final administrative arrangements. He may be reached on Government Code 142, Extension 318.

Sincerely yours,
